Head Teacher's Message

Dear Parents and Carers,

Election fever grasped us this week, when the whole school immersed itself in 'Election Day'. The children learnt about our parliamentary system, formulated policies, wrote their party manifestoes and then crafted crowd-pleasing speeches. Party candidates delivered these with passion and enthusiasm before the electorate went to the ballot box. At the end of the day we were paid a surprise visit from local MP Lyn Brown, who took time out of her busy schedule to act as the Returning Officer.

As well as being a lot of fun, our Election Day provided an opportunity for us help the children develop an understanding of their civic duty, and to make them aware that citizens' responsibilities go hand in hand with the rights that they enjoy as being part of a democracy. The day was a victory for the British Values of Democracy, Individual Liberty and Mutual Respect." Congratulations and well done to the Year 5 pupils who represented the school at the Newham Tri-Golf tournament this week. As always, they were a credit to the school and performed very well.

Enjoy the weekend
