

Godwin Newsletter 22nd March 2019

Head Teacher's Message

Our Year 6 children have been particularly focussed this week, sitting practice SATs in preparation for the real exams in May. We have been very impressed with how maturely they approached these;
well done to you all!
Best wishes for a relaxing weekend.

The Godwin BIG Pedal

Next week, starting on Monday, THE GODWIN BIG PEDAL will begin. For two weeks we would like pupils, parents, carers and staff to TRY and cycle, scoot or walk to school.

Remember, it's good for you and good for our planet.

GET MOVING! THE BIG PEDAL IS COMING TO GODWIN!

Godwin JTAs (Junior Travel Ambassadors)

Book Fair

The Travelling Book Fair will be at Godwin from Tuesday 26th March to Monday 1st April.

Please come along to browse and to buy.

Remember to you can use your World Day book voucher towards the purchase of any book.

Hot Chocolate Morning

Advance Notice

The date for the next 'BIG Dig' is Saturday 27th April from 9am – 1pm. As well as working on the garden areas around the school we will be having a picnic to follow. More details coming soon!

Correction

In last week's newsletter we listed the wrong name for the Achievement Award for 4H – the award went to Harry.

Well done Harry –
We are sorry we got your name wrong.

The HUGE Easter Raffle
