Head Teacher's Message

Wow! What a week. Thank you for all of your support during the snowy weather. It was a really difficult decision to make to close the school on Thursday – we constantly emphasise the importance of being here, on time every day so it runs counter to everything we hold dear to text you to say that we are unable to open. It is only because of the dedication of our staff – teachers, teaching assistants, site supervisor, office staff, cooks, cleaners and mid-day supervisors – that we were able to open today. Many of them have long journeys and I would like to acknowledge their commitment to the school and to your children's education.

Our assembly focus this week and next is Fairtrade. We are discussing with the children how individual action by consumers (us) can make a massive difference to the lives of people in other countries whom we will never meet. Our globalised world means that our choices have repercussions for others. By focussing on the British Value of Mutual Respect, we hope to encourage our children to think about what is just and act accordingly.

Please come along to our Fairtrade coffee morning at 9:00 am on Tuesday 6th March. We look forward to seeing you!

Books

Do you have any books (in good condition) that you no longer want that you could donate to our school library?

Fact or fiction books are all needed to boost the stock we have, so that we have a wide selection for all our pupils to enjoy.

Have a look this weekend and bring any books to the school office.

All pupils are invited to take part in this national competition.

The theme is –‘ School Spirit’
