Head Teacher's Message

Dear Parents/Carers,

Sometimes children's words are far more powerful than our own:

Learning at school about the holocaust has opened my eyes. It has made me realise that horrible, unimaginable things have happened and could happen again. Everyone should be treated as an equal human being. Everyone should have a life free from fear.

It has also made me think about the words I say and how they can affect others. I promise to always use my words to build people up, to never judge others by their skin colour, religion or gender. Let this never happen again.

Barley in 6S was one of 15 children who took part in Newham's Holocaust Memorial Ceremony today. By learning about the past we create a better future.

Best wishes for a peaceful weekend.

Reading Volunteers

Could you offer an afternoon once a week to listen to a child read?

We need more adult volunteers to come in to school to support our children with their reading.

A commitment to be in school from 1.30pm for an hour or so, no great skills needed other than to have an enthusiasm to encourage children as they read, to discover the joy that books can provide.

This opportunity is not confined to parents/carers but to the wider community, so if you have a neighbour who you think may be interested please spread the word!

Contact Mrs Gould for details.
