

Godwin Newsletter 3rd November 2017

Head Teacher's Message

The children have come back from the half term break invigorated and keen to embrace new learning. Over the next few weeks there are lots of educational visits taking place which will support learning across the curriculum and inspire them. Our Extreme Reading competition has now finished –thank you for all of the entries – but we are starting a new competition linked to home reading record books. Please ask your child for details.

Poppy Appeal

Saturday 11th November is Remembrance Day and Sunday 12th November is Remembrance Sunday.

We have traditional poppies (20p minimum donation please) and also a selection of other items for sale. Available from the school reception.

All funds collected are in aid of the Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal.

Lost Property

Lost property will be on the patio area after school every day from today until Friday 10th November.

If your child has lost anything please make sure you have a look to find it.

All remaining items will be given to charity.

Scholastic Book Club

Orders for the Scholastic Book Club should be given, along with payment, to the school office.

The closing date for orders is 17th November.

Parliament Week

13th-17th November

Parliament Week began in 2011 with a small number of events held across the country. It has steadily grown and this year it is anticipated 380,000 people will be taking part, including Godwin! More details to come; a family quiz and school debate.
